FOREWORD

Time and past Warrentonians have made John Graham students heirs to a challenging tradition of unusual community culture, personal integrity, and high ideals of scholarship and achievement.

We would have the 1959-1960 Yearbook express many things: our awareness of our heritage, our gratitude for traditions to respect and to uphold, and our consciousness of the value of our training here as a sound basis for our hope in a good future.

The pull of sentiment is strong. We are tempted to "call back yesterday" and to "bid time return" as we see that

One by one the sands are flowing,
One by one the moments fall;
Some are coming; some are going . . .

And we cannot grasp them all!

Following the motto of a quaint old English sundial, "I record only sunny hours," we have chosen pictures and situations to express school spirit as we know it, and to record some of the happiest and best experiences of this school year.

It is our sincere hope that as time transforms the sunny hours of our high school days into golden memories, they may both be an inspiration for John Graham students - past, present, and future - and for others who may open the covers of this book.

Wherever we see him, he has a smile and a greeting for everyone. He expresses his interest in us not only in classroom instruction but in friendly guidance in other activities as well. His sportsmanlike ideal of fairness has made a lasting impression on many students at John Graham High School.

Because he is an inspiration to us, we proudly dedicate the 1959-1960 WARRENTONIAN to Mr. Donald Bennett.

Betsy Rose,

Knowing you since you have been at Jan Graham has meant a whole lot to me. Your kindness and sweetness will never be forgotten. I don't think I could have made it this far without you. It's hard to believe we only have one more year of high school, isn't it?? I sincerely hope our friendship will continue throughout the years. As I think about my campaign speech you ^{today} you I realize how true it all is. You are a very capable person and I know you will always succeed in all you do. Be seeing you next year.

Love always,
Judith

Betsy Rose,

Well another year is almost over. We've shared so many wonderful times that I'll never forget as long as I live.

You're one of the sweetest, most understanding girls I've ever known and I don't know what I wouldn't have done without your advice when I so desperately needed it. Thanks a million!

Next year, believe it or not, we'll actually be Seniors! I can hardly believe it but, Look Out! Here we come!!!

Good luck always to a darling girl.

May success be yours.

Love always,
Inez
